

SAC NEEDS YOUR VOICE

The Department of the Air Force is seeking family members who are interested in serving as Survivor Representatives on the 2022-2024 Survivor Advocacy Council (SAC)

SAC representatives provide their voices to senior military leaders and advocacy on quality-of-life issues and concerns affecting all DAF survivors.

The DAF Survivor Advocacy Council consists of 12 family members of Regular Air Force, Space Force, or Reserve Component Airmen or Guardians who died while serving in an Active Duty, Inactive Duty for Training, or Annual Training status.

Diversity is key to ensuring full representation within the council, family members of Airmen and Guardians from all circumstance of death are encouraged to apply.

The 2022-2024 SAC application period will be open from 1 October - 31 October 2021
